Mr. Yuan Yingjie, General Manager of the Company Due to unexpected factors such as the complex evolution of the international environment as well as the resurgence increased significantly in the second quarter. In response, the Chinese government efficiently coordinated epidemic prevention and control as well as economic development, while effectively implementing policies and measures to stabilize the economy. There has been continual improvement in epidemic prevention and control, and economic activities have gradually stabilized and rebounded since May. The Group continued to focus on high-quality development.

showed a significant year-over-year decrease due to the resurgence of the epidemic, while revenue from the securities business was generally on par with the same period last year despite the downward movement of the capital market.
